Mabo's Cultural Legacy: The Mabo Decision, 25 Years On

An Interdisciplinary Workshop
University of Stuttgart, Germany
16-18 November 2017

The Department of English Literatures at the University of Stuttgart, in cooperation with the Association for Australian Studies/Gesellschaft für Australienstudien, is organising an interdisciplinary Workshop to promote discussion and debate about the cultural and historical legacy of the 1992 Australian High Court decision on Mabo.

Keynote Speakers: Lynette Russell (Monash University), Paul Turnbull (University of Tasmania), Kieran Dolin (University of Western Australia, via Skype). Other speakers will address the topics of anthropology, history, film, linguistics, fiction writing, poetry, politics and social affairs.

For more information on the Workshop program see: www.australienstudien.org/index.php/en/news
