

Table of Contents

Renate Brosch and Kylie Crane Visualising Australia: An Introduction	1-18
Bill Ashcroft Seeing Australia: Learning and Unlearning the Visible World	19-38
Corinna Erckenbrecht and Anna Haebich Aboriginal People in Chains	39-60
Matthew Graves and Elizabeth Rechniewski Speculative Geographers: Imagining the Australian Continent in the 1830s	61-82
Mitchell Rolls Hanging Paintings: Aboriginal Art, Primitivism, and the Quest for Authenticity	83-98
Russell West-Pavlov Back to Country: Leah King-Smith's Double-Exposed Photography in the Pattern of Connection Series and Indigenous Landscape	99-118
Laura A. White Images Matter: Richard Flanagan, Richard Wastell and Materializations of Tasmania	119-134
Farida Fozdar Aussie Cows and Asylum Seekers: Cartooning About Two Key Political Issues	135-150
Therese-Marie Mayer The Ultimate Metaphor: Cane Toads as Australian Icon	151-170
Katrina Schlunke "Seeing Skippy?": Visualising and Materialising the Kangaroo	171-180
Paul Carter Incontinence: Australia and the Archipelago	181-198
The Contributors	199